

Interactive comment on “Quarterdiurnal signature in sporadic E occurrence rates and comparison with neutral wind shear” by Christoph Jacobi et al.

Christoph Jacobi et al.

jacobi@uni-leipzig.de

Received and published: 7 December 2018

Thank you very much for your very positive opinion. Negative wind shear means that the vertical gradient of the considered horizontal wind component (either zonal or meridional, but we do not analyze the meridional one here) is negative. We will add this information in the revised version.

Interactive comment on Ann. Geophys. Discuss., <https://doi.org/10.5194/angeo-2018-125>, 2018.

Printer-friendly version

Discussion paper

